This Week @LP

Friday March 10th, 2017

BRAVO! to the cast, pit orchestra, crew, staff and parents of Lambrick's 1st Musical in 17 years, The Addams Family! All the time, energy & effort has paid off in a fantastic show! The energy around the building is filled with excitement and creative energy! A special shout out to our director, Ms. Nette Martin, our conductor, Mr. Barry Janzen and our grade 12 graduating students!

Shows have been running all week with final performances Saturday March 11th at 1:30pm and 7:30pm. Tickets may be available at the door. Call the school office before 3pm on Friday to reserve your seats!

Coming Up:

- Interim Reports are going home today at the end of the day. If there are any concerns, please contact your child's teacher via email (1st initial, last name@sd61.bc.ca).

- The last day of school before spring break is Friday March 17th[h] and we return to school on April 3rd.

- Please see the attached approved calendar for the 201-18 school year.

- Our Sr. Boys Basketball Team have been at provincials all week, please check our Twitter/Facebook feed for updates! A special shout out to our grade twelve basketball athltes as they play their final games of high school basketball. You have made your school community very proud!