Musical this week!
Youth Empowering Youth notice in the email
5. Treasurer's update – - Dawn
Not much activity in February. We received $500 from the Hillside Christmas shopping contest. Nothing unexpected.
6. Emergency Preparedness – Cecelia
No update
7. VCPAC update - No update
8. Administration Report – Principal Gord Mitchell
Musical is in full swing and going well with great energy. Technical glitch being overcome. Definition of masks during a musical is also underway.
Grad - trying to find silver lining of the pandemic. Perhaps ceremonies can be streamed so friends & family from far and away can be part of it.
Course selection underway for upcoming school year. All forms should be submitted prior to spring break.
Gord has received info from VCPAC around hot lunches, field trips and meeting curriculum requirements during covid. The school may try to implement a lunch program after spring break to see what they can do within covid guidelines.
Questions about middle school in our pathway choosing Mt Doug over Lambrick.
Encourage parents to complete the survey from the district.

9. New Business

Staff Appreciation lunch...has to be different during covid. BF for April agenda.

10. Adjourn

 Next meeting: April 7, 2021 7pm

Watch the school Friday LP Weekly email for the Zoom invitation
